DETAILED ACTION

1. The amendment filed on November 20th, 2007 overcomes the following objection/rejection of the last Office Action:
  - a. Objection to the abstract for exceeding more than 150 words.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-11 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Referring to claims 1, 4 and 7, Perrott references (US 6856206) discloses method and apparatus for acquiring a frequency without a reference clock. McLeod references (7164742) discloses clock phase generator 40, such as a delay locked loop (DLL). Neither Perrott and McLeod references taken alone or in combination, does not disclose, teach or fairly suggest a method of measuring, for a signal S, the Unit Interval of a logical ONE, the method comprising the steps of: (a) initializing a register R of k-many cells R:[1-k] to all ONEs; and then subsequently (b) delaying each transition in the signal S by selected amounts of k-many successive consecutive delays to produce a respective collection of Delayed Signals DS:[1-k], DS:(i+1) being delayed from DS: i, i=1, 2, . . . , k-1, the cumulative amount of delay from a transition in S to the corresponding transition in DS:k being at least as long as the longest unit interval to be measured; (c) clocking logical ZEROs among the DS:[1-k] into the corresponding and respective cells R: [1-k] upon a ONE-to-ZERO transition in the signal S to clear those cells while not using any ONEs to set their respective cells; (d) repeating steps (b) and

(c) for a selected duration; and then (e) capturing the values of the k-many cells R: [1-k] and taking remaining ONEs therein as an indication, in units corresponding to the consecutive delays, of the Unit Interval of a logical ONE for the signal S.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
